

THERE'S THIS PLACE where ADVENTURE FINDS YOU

GET TO KNOW MISSOULA

There's this place where wanderlust is indulged in this small mountain town with big personality and transcendent charm. A place where we float the river to our next concert and sample craft beer with local artists. Missoula, Montana has the unparalleled natural beauty and the cultural vibrancy to make your visit unforgettable.

Foodie

From street food to fine dining, Missoula's dining establishments are worth savoring. We're talking locally sourced, award-winning, mouth-watering cuisine from the reservation-only restaurant downtown to the food truck outside one of our great breweries. Whether you're looking to try your first bison burger or have a vegan-friendly vacation, Missoula's food scene can dish it up.

It's hard to make decisions when you're hungry. We made it easy by listing all the options you'll need here.

Outdoor Enthusiast

When in Montana, do as the Montanans do: take to the trails and rivers for an epic day of adventure by bike, surfboard, raft, tube or kayak. With over thirty trails inside city limits and three rivers to explore, you won't have to search far for good clean fun. Don't worry if you forgot your gear at home, because rental shops like The Trail Head have everything you need.

Missoula is a "choose your own adventure" kind of place, and we're here to help. Surf through all the outdoor recreation opportunities that lie ahead here.

Cultural Tourist

We're so much more than craft beer and river floats. Missoula's past is rich with American Indian history and the remnants of westward expansion, while our vibrant art scene touches every corner of the city. Dive deep into Missoula's culture and see what you find.

From smokejumpers to contemporary art, Missoula has a story to tell. Learn more here.

Cocktails & Craft Brew Connoisseur

Hop heads rejoice! Montana has the second highest number of craft breweries per capita in the U.S., so there is no shortage of microbrew magic in Missoula. For a fun spin on handcrafted beverages, take a break from your IPA and sip a signature cocktail at one of the local distilleries.

Music Lover

Big city entertainment meets small town charm in Missoula. The downtown district may only be 12 square blocks, but it packs a big punch when it comes to our nightlife and music scene. On any given night, live music can be heard at Missoula's bars, restaurants and breweries, with toe-tapping tunes ranging from classic country to jazz and blues. Missoula's unique and beautiful outdoor venues bring in major concerts with music from all genres – think Paul McCartney, Pearl Jam, Norah Jones and Nathaniel Rateliff.

It doesn't matter when you're in town, there's always something going on. Check out our music site and find your next concert here.
